NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled an act for the sale of timber lands in the State of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory, Allen C. Bragg, of Reno, county of Washoe, State of Nevada, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 1269, for the purchase of the NW 1/4 of Section No. 8, in Town 19 N., Range 17 E., M. D. 8, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office, at Sacramento, Cal., on Monday, the 20th day of December, 1890. He names as witnesses: Charles A. Bragg, R. L. Fulton, James Mayberry and Thos. K. Stewart, all of Reno, Nevada.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before the 20th day of December, 1890.

EXCITED STOCKS

In the New York and London Markets.

AN ENGLISH HORSE RACE.

President Harrison and Party in Iowa.

Compte De Paris and Party Going to Richmond.

An Excited Market.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The stock market this morning was the scene of wild excitement. The quotations were entirely nominal. Canadian Pacific declined 1 per cent. from last evening's closing price, Erie 1 1/2, Erie second consols 1 1/2, Illinois Central 4 1/2, Mexican ordinary 1/2, St. Paul common 2 1/2, New York Central 1 1/2, Pennsylvania 1/2, Reading 1/2.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—4 P. M.—A large amount of stocks was thrown on the market through forced sales. This induced many failures, and to-morrow's settlements are very anxiously awaited. Consols are 94 15-16 for money and 95 1/4 for account. Bullion in the Bank of England has decreased £58,000 during the past week. The proportion of the bank reserve to its liability for the past week was 33.51 per cent., and is now 31.51 per cent. The stock market rallied and closed stronger.

New York, Oct. 9.—The excitement on the London Stock Exchange did not materially affect the market here. Large sales of Western Union were made during the first hour. Ten thousand shares were sold the first hour and the price fell to 59 1/4. This was followed by unloading for other accounts in Burlington, Rock Island, Illinois Central and Richmond terminals. There were also heavy sales of bonds for the accounts of weak holders, covering shorts, and some supporting orders caused a rally and a decided improvement toward noon.

Every one posted on the stock market conceded the situation during the afternoon as critical. The last cables from London reported an unsettled market there, and the current rumor of trouble on Wall street made capitalists and operators not already loaded down afraid to buy.

Liquidations continued, with drops of 1/2 and 1 on single sales. The greatest decline was in Jersey Central, which fell 4 per cent., and Illinois Central, 3 1/2 per cent., and the Rock Island, Burlington, St. Paul and Omaha are at the lowest prices in many years.

The stock market was again subjected to a severe pressure to sell after 12 o'clock with renewed activity. As a rule the declines were sufficient to bring prices down to a lower level than at any previous time during the present downward movement. St. Paul sold below 59, Burlington below 50, and Rock Island below 75.

The losses from the noon figures on the general list were slight, but a special weakness was shown in many. Illinois Central fell from 99 to 96 1/2. The usual feeble rally occurred toward 2 P. M., but the market displayed no recuperative power, and a further sharp loss was sustained in a few of the specialties. At 2:15 it was comparatively quiet and barley was steady at something better than the lowest prices of the day.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—3:30 P. M.—The stock market has been excited since the opening, but prices have partially recovered.

OTTAWA (Iowa), Oct. 9.—At 8 o'clock this morning the Presidential party reached this city. The delegation was headed by Hon. J. G. Hutchings, ex-Republican candidate for Governor of Iowa, and Senator P. G. Ballingall, President of the Ottawa Coal Palace, who met the party a Galesburg last evening and escorted them to Ottawa.

It was due to the forethought of Superintendent Wilson and Manager Bishop of the Burlington road that a pleasant night's rest was afforded the President by the train being side-tracked at a quiet little station near Ottawa until daylight.

Despite the early hour, almost the entire population of the thriving young city of Ottawa turned out to greet the President. Rousing cheers were given, and a moment later the booming of cannon commenced and the jubilation of the day was fairly begun.

In this city resides the President's elder sister, Sally, wife of T. J. Devins, an old citizen. John S. Harrison, the President's gray-haired elder brother, who is in business in Kansas City, met the party here, and from the depot he and Devins escorted their distinguished relative to Devins' residence, where the family breakfasted together.

Early in the forenoon the weather became unfavorable; rain began falling, but it did not seem to dampen the enthusiasm of Ottawans, and certainly did not seriously mar the ceremonies, which took place under the roof of the Ottawa Coal Palace and Iowa Industrial Exposition. At 10 o'clock President Harrison, under the escort of Governor Boies and Senator Ballingall, visited the Coal Palace. To the President it was full of interest, and his surprise and admiration were thoroughly evidenced by his numerous inquiries.

OTTAWA (Iowa), Oct. 9.—After the forenoon visit to the Coal Palace the President repaired to the residence of his sister, where lunch was taken. The rain by this time had ceased, and at 1 o'clock the parade took place. The Council, State and other officials, and the military and societies were reviewed by the President.

Card of Explanation.

EDITOR GAZETTE: It is reported that Mr. Merrill, Commissioner from Verdi, was not notified of a meeting of the Board of Equalization held at the Courthouse Monday evening, October 6th, for the purpose of considering the complaint of the Central Pacific Railroad as to the assessed valuation of their main track through Washoe county. Mr. Merrill was in session with the Board when the time was fixed, and promised to be in attendance. A messenger was sent out to find him, but failed to see him. Monday, October 6th, was the last day that the Commissioners could sit as a Board of Equalization for the year 1890, and the matter under advisement had to be determined then. We did what we considered for the best interests of this community, and time will prove the correctness of our judgment. The railroad asked that we should deal with them justly, and not put the road at a higher valuation than other counties in Nevada.

We consulted heavy taxpayers before we settled on the valuation. We are constantly asking the railroad people to consider propositions benefiting our town. We open up streets and want crossings put in. It is under consideration now to have Virginia street so that it will be open to travel clear through, thus making this street one of the grand thoroughfares of Reno. The taxpayers of Reno and Washoe county should appreciate the fact that no city or town in the country has a better system of sewerage under way than we have here; you have good electric light service, and the redeeming feature is your tax rate has been getting less and less each year. In all communities you will find "kickers." They never attend a meeting of the Board of Commissioners, as it is the duty of taxpayers to do, and make suggestions. They make false accusations as to bargains and sales, and want the people to believe it. Away with "the Silurians," or your town will pass into the Dark Ages. Respectfully,
W. F. McLAUGHLIN.

Special to the GAZETTE.

SEATTLE, Oct. 9.—William Sprague, Jr., only son of ex-Governor Sprague of Rhode Island, was found dead in bed in his room on Tuesday evening. Half a bottle of chloroform lay on the floor beside the bed. He left a letter of incoherent sentences, which gives rise to the belief that he was temporarily insane.

PROVIDENCE (R. I.), Oct. 9.—The news of the suicide of Willie Sprague, son of ex-Governor William Sprague, was a surprise here. His mother is Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague, daughter of the late Salmon P. Chase, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court. He was born at Canochet, R. I., about twenty-five years ago, and his early years were made bright by all that the great wealth his father enjoyed could afford.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

Speeches Made at Silver City—A Good Feeling Prevails All Along the Line.

A large and intelligent audience was present at Miners' Hall in Silver City on Wednesday evening to listen to speeches by Governor Colcord, Francis G. Newlands and others. A large number of ladies was present and much interest was shown by the citizens. Mr. Newlands, in a rapid survey of the situation, brought out many new and striking points, which were heartily applauded. He explained the tariff proposition as an effort on the part of its exponents to raise by a tax the price of merchandise manufactured by the cheap labor of foreign countries to a figure at which it can be made with the higher wages paid to our laborers. This is the policy of the Republican party as against the demands of the Democracy for inaction. He showed the good effects of the silver legislation, which has fulfilled the prophecies of our Western financiers and completely upset the theories of the gold bugs by raising the values of our wheat, corn, oat, silver and cotton crops over three hundred millions a year. He gave a short account of State affairs, proving that here, as elsewhere, the Republican party is the party of progress and the Democratic party the epitome of inertia and inaction and that the fortune of the State depends upon the success of the Republican party.

The candidates were all well received and the straightforward and manly statement of Mr. Colcord, made friends of all in the house. Mr. Egan is a general favorite there and his appearance as a canvasser was taken as a real joke by those who knew that he would get nearly every vote in town.

Surveyor-General Jones explained something of the duties of his office and convinced his hearers that he was a capable and efficient officer.

The meeting closed with three rousing cheers for the party, another round for Colcord and a third for Newlands.

Hon. J. J. Linn was the unanimous choice of the Convention, for no one dared to cross swords with him for the nomination of Justice of the Peace. Even the Great I. B. took a back seat when his name was called. But, joking aside, Mr. Linn is a gentleman of education and character, fearless and painstaking, and will make one of the best J. P.'s this county has ever had.

S. W. Upson, the candidate for Constable, has made a good officer, and will continue to perform the duties of that office in an acceptable manner.

S. M. Jamison and William Pinniger, the nominees for School Trustees, are both old residents, and are well known to every taxpayer in the county.

The Lyon county Times contains the following: Francis G. Newlands is going to stump the State this fall in the interest of the Republican party. An exchange remarks that he will be "a full team and horse to spare, for no one understands the relative positions of the two parties better than he." We believe so, too, but what particular nominee is Mr. Newlands going to stump the State for? It is conceded that Jones is to go back to the Senate and that Bartine and Colcord will have no trouble to win. But, if Mr. Newlands stumps the State, may he not make so favorable an impression on the people that they will want him to go to the Senate anyway? The gentleman has large interests in Nevada, and there is no denying that he would make a rustling representative.

We no not care to enter into further discussion with a paper so manifestly unfair as the Silver State. We wrote a letter to Mr. Quinn, the Assessor of Esmeralda county, asking if Mr. Colcord's name appeared upon the assessment roll, and received in reply the letter published the other night giving Mr. Colcord's assessment. We have not seen the assessment roll, but take it for granted that the Assessor told us the truth. For a paper of character to twist and distort a fact to suit its own peculiar ideas is not honorable, and we do not care to further discuss the question with it.

It is expected that the professional baseball clubs will be out of pocket about $300,000 in the aggregate for the season. Something of the kind has been prefigured by the diminished attendance during the summer. It is the result of making a business of sport and overdoing it. Baseball is an excellent game, and will undoubtedly maintain its popularity among American youth, but when a professional baseballist demands more pay for six months than a first-class business employee can get for a year a reaction is inevitable against baseball as a business.

The English Secretary of State, alluding to the McKinley bill, says it behooves the Government to find fresh outlets for English capital. A good deal of that capital seems to be finding an outlet for itself by engaging in American industries, and, if reports are true, more of it seems likely to come to the United States, bringing industries with it to set up under the shelter of the new tariff.

In our review of the Republican ticket yesterday we inadvertently left out the candidate for District Attorney, T. V. Julien is invincible. Every one is his friend, and an enemy is unknown. He will make a first-class District Attorney as he has County Clerk.

Missouri and Kansas are neighbors. Missouri is a bourbon State, Kansas is progressive Republican. Missouri increased her population 28 per cent. during the last ten years, Kansas 68 per cent.

The Philadelphia Press thinks that in thirty years the State of Pennsylvania will have a greater population than the State of New York.

The following from the Sacramento Record-Union applies with equal force to Reno and every other precinct in Nevada: "The day is very near at hand when registration for the approaching election will cease. Yet there is a very large number of voters unregistered. It is the duty of every citizen to vote in a State election. He owes it not only to himself, but to his fellow-citizens, to exercise the sovereign right with which a free government has invested him. The danger to our institutions is greater from the indifference of voters to their solemn obligations to take a part in Government-making than from the assaults of the vicious or the chicanes of bosses. Let every citizen who esteems his citizenship of any value whatever see to it that his name is placed upon the Great Register, and at once. The neglect or refusal to register and to vote is a political crime."

A FEW days ago the announcement came from Pittsburgh of the organization of a great tin-plate manufacturing company. Now a similar enterprise is reported from Chicago which will give employment to 5,000 men. Following the discovery of tin in California, Dakota and North Carolina, the McKinley bill bears quick fruit. The Bulletin says: It is not likely that the increase in the cost of his dinner-pail will attract the notice of the working man, at least, not for any length of time. With the canning interest any rise in the cost of tin plate is of course important, but the activity of capital in taking hold of the new industry, promises a domestic competition which will parallel the experience of the iron and steel industry and bring down prices, as has been the result of protection to iron, steel, borax, and many other articles that have taken the place of the foreign product.

WHAT A VOICE CAUSED.

The True Story of How President Harrison Won His Wife.

Editing the river column of a daily in a flourishing Kentucky city on the banks of the Ohio is a genial old gentleman of about sixty years, who but for a ludicrous incident would have out President Harrison out of his wife. Thaddeus Conant is the name of him who got left in the race for the hand of Miss Caroline Scott, and it all came about in this way:

In the county just back of Cincinnati there used to be a school for boys kept by a fatherly minister named Scott. As an accommodation he sometimes boarded those boys who lived elsewhere, and among his pupils who lived in the house were Harrison and Conant. Like every other boy in the school these two lads succumbed to the charms of pretty Carrie Scott, the sixteen-year-old daughter of the school-teacher. Very soon the contest for Miss Scott's favor was narrowed down to Harrison and Conant, with post odds slightly on the latter. Harrison was a dangerous rival however. He spent much time indoors and around his charmer. Conant was boyish and spent more time on the playground than at his books. When he did talk to his sweetheart he made good use of his time, for by the close of the session it was openly discussed in the school how Thad Conant had become the choice of the principal's daughter.

There also boarded in the house a youngster named Torian, and he was the cause of all the trouble. Torian was not different from other boys save in one thing—he had a thin, girlish voice, that sounded like a pipe-organ with vox humana stop pulled out. It was a physical infirmity and never changed to the guttural tones of manhood. This Torian and Conant were intimate friends. One evening just before an examination in some study Conant and Torian determined to break a rule by remaining up after the retiring bell had sounded and studying a little for the coming examination. They did not go to bed at the usual time, but remained up, though they did much more idle talking than studying. They were none too careful about the pitch of their voices, and the doctor on one of his nocturnal prowls in search of offenders passed the door. He could not overhear the conversation, but gathered enough to make up his mind on the course he was to follow.

Right after breakfast the next morning Dr. Scott and young Conant met in secret session. When the boy got out he was nearly exploding with laughter. Calling his fellows up he told them how old Scott had heard Torian talking in his room and thought it was Lizzie, the house-girl. The miniature scandal created much fun for awhile, but it got to the ears of Miss Carrie. Her views on the matter can best be imagined, for she would not have anything more to do with Conant. The school closed soon afterward and Conant did not return for the ensuing session. When he next heard of his youthful sweetheart it was in connection with her marriage to Ben Harrison.

He never saw her again. Conant told the story on himself to a representative of the Chicago Times, and laughingly added that he had other reasons than being a Democrat for voting against Ben Harrison.

Steady Progress

Has characterized Hood's Sarsaparilla ever since it was placed before the public. Wherever introduced, its sales have grown from year to year, until now it is the most popular and most successful medicine offered. Any druggist will confirm this statement. The secret of this success lies in the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a medicine of merit. It does actually accomplish what it is claimed for it, and when given a fair trial, is reasonably certain to be of benefit.

Positive Statements.
"Since Hood's Sarsaparilla has been in my hands for sale I have had frequent and unreserved testimonials in its favor. Although carrying this preparation for less than one year, my sales have been greater than of any similar preparation, and the testimonials in its favor are at once positive and personally noticeable." A. Watson, Haledburg, Cal.

Sells On Its Merits.
"My boys say, 'Papa, why don't you buy more of Hood's Sarsaparilla at a time; we are always short.' It sells on its own merits." F. E. Hall, Portland, Oregon; the oldest druggist in Oregon.

PLATFORM & RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Republican State Convention held at Virginia, Nevada, September 4, 1890:

1. The record of the Republican party is a record of success.

2. The political party in human history has never taken such advanced positions for the equality of races, none so wedded to the administration of authority to the needs of business, none so managed the affairs of State in the interests of the people, and none so devoted to the promotion and settlement of a continent, none has so elevated a nation and so contributed to the comfort and happiness of man, none has so honestly and economically carried on the routine duties of office.

In all things it has been the direct opposite of the Democratic party. Grand in its ambitions and impulses, firm and resolute in its consistency, strong in its devotion to principle, it is now, as it has been from its birth, the representative of all that is best and noblest in its own country and the hope and promise of a better future for the human race.

Its battles for human rights, its preservation of the Union, its abolition of slavery, its protection to labor, its elevation of manufacturers, its upholding of the national credit, its efforts in behalf of honest financial methods, its honest system and its devotion to popular education have made for it the greatest record of any political organization in or out of office.

The deeds of its heroes are legion, and the deeds of Fremont, Lincoln, Grant, and Garfield will shine like electric lights on the pages of history.

The crime of filibustering, so often resorted to by the Democratic party for the purpose of defeating legislation and blocking the wheels of government, has been done away with by the genius of Reed, McKinley and their associates, and the efficient taught that congressmen are paid by the people for making good laws and not bad politics.

It has, by a strict party vote, placed the silver question on a basis that will lead naturally to free silver and disarm all opposition among financiers.

It has taken up the work of a readjustment of the tariff in a party to and in the interest of the people, and will protect the interests of labor and at the same time encourage capital and enterprise that will furnish it with employment at good wages.

New States, which were denied their rights before, have been admitted to the Union, and the grip of Tammany Hall upon the Presidency broken.

Trusts that grew rank and rancid under a Democratic administration have been broken up and made to obey the laws of honest commerce.

Efforts are being made to prevent or punish frauds and intimidations in elections.

A navy has been provided for an suitable pensions granted to prevent suffering among the sick and wounded heroes of the war.

Provision is being made for the reclamation of the arid regions, where the Republican policy of free homes and free schools can be applied.

Unearned land grants are being restored to the public domain and the land thrown open to settlement, and in all the work of the National party reform are being amply redeemed.

We endorse the Administration of President Harrison, and commend his conservative course as striking in contrast with his predecessor in office.

During the former Administration silver was when touched the lowest price ever known, and farmers burned their corn for fuel. Trusts were stimulated, business discouraged, strikes prevailed, the mail service was demoralized, and the business found that the method of being encouraged by the methods of the government, whose whole business should be to benefit the country.

To-day silver, wheat, lead, and all the products of labor are rapidly rising, and while the Democratic officials may perhaps be innocent of intentional injury to the people, they are responsible for the results of blunders as they would be for crimes. Under Harrison, Chinese and contract labor are kept out of the country, American laborers and mechanics protected, agriculture is encouraged by a department intelligently conducted for its benefit, and the law administered in a wise, firm and patriotic manner. In presenting a list to the voters of Nevada, the Republican party pledges its loyalty to reformation wherever it is possible in county and State expenditures.

We pledge our nominees to a system of State improvements which shall save the water now running to waste and develop means to secure its use in the irrigation of the fertile lands now lying idle.

We endorse the measure introduced by Senator Stewart proposing to cede the lands within our limits to the State for the purpose of aiding to improve our waterage and irrigating systems, and we appeal to Congress and the President to grant this much-needed aid.

We endorse the course of our Senators and Representative in Congress, and commend their efforts to establish on a better basis the use of silver as money, and we reaffirm our uncompromising demand for the free coinage of both gold and silver and their equal station in our national currency.

Whereas, The practice of letting mail contracts in this State to non-residents thereof, who seek and obtain such contracts only for the purpose of subletting the same, has resulted in an inferior and impaired mail service.

Resolved, That our delegation in Congress be requested to procure, if possible, the enactment of a law to prevent such abuses in the future.

We are in favor of the improvement of the wages of American labor by restricting immigration from foreign countries, a thorough revision of our naturalization and land laws, the construction of naval and coast defenses, the fostering of free schools and popular education, the enforcement of a free ballot and fair count, cherishing the defenders of our country, the protection of every citizen in his rights at home and abroad, the fostering of a policy that will extend our commerce, the settling of all foreign complications by arbitration, and liberal appropriations by Congress for the construction of water reservoirs and a system of irrigation.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Australian system of ballot.

Resolved, That at the coming election the question as to whether or not a constitutional Convention will be held is to be submitted to the people, that we earnestly invite a calm and thorough discussion of the question during the campaign.

Resolved, That it is the policy of the Republican party of Nevada to secure a safe and possible reformation in public affairs, and especially in dispensing with unnecessary offices and useless deputies in adjusting salaries upon a basis of services performed, decreasing the per diem and mileage of salaried officers, and lessening the number of members of the Legislature, in the reduction of taxation and in consolidating county offices and diminishing county expenses, and to this end we pledge the nominees of this convention, and earnestly ask that the nominees of the several county conventions be likewise obligated.

A DREADFUL CHILD.
Asleep it's All Right, but Awake
It Becomes a Kitten.

A Strange Tale Reported from Columbia
County, N. Y.—It May Be True, but
It Reads Very Much Like a Base Fabrication.

An eldritch tale, worthy of the darkest and palmiest days of the middle ages, comes from the little hamlet of Pomponoon, up in Columbia County, where a child is said to have been born of late which defies competition, although, fortunately, it does not baffle description, says the New York Times.

While asleep or at rest it appears to differ in no respect from the ordinary fortnight-old baby of commerce. As it slumbers peacefully in its cradle, with its breast rising and falling as gently and regularly as possible, any feeling woman would bless its little heart and look upon it with delight and that fluttering sentiment, not unakin to awe, with which the entire female world regard any newly-arrived traveler from the other world—providing, of course, the traveler be not a ghost, and, therefore, does not come from the wrong side of life. A baby is one thing and a ghost is another, although the two are equally mysterious, and it is quite certain that both invariably dress all in white. The tones of their voices and their general manner of expressing themselves, the ability of the one to walk while the other seems able only to kick and wriggle, easily mark the essential distinction between them. There are doubtless other peculiarities which will enable almost any woman to tell at a glance whether a particular object is a ghost or a baby, although these peculiarities might not readily find accurate definition even at the hands of a woman of most unusual discernment and profound sagacity.

As has already been remarked, the Columbia County child, when asleep or at rest, seems, even to the female eye and heart, to be nothing but a baby. Its complexion, perhaps is not all that could be desired; there is a slight suspicion of incongruity—a certain disparity of proportions—between the molding of its nose and that of its upper lip, and there is a paucity of hair, or rather of fuzz, on its head, and these things can hardly fail to produce a painful impression upon the mind of any unprejudiced observer, just as they do in all cases in which young infants are involved. At all events, every woman who sees it sleeping and who is not acquainted with the little peculiarities it exhibits in its waking moments declares that it is simply a lovely, little, precious darling—which it isn't by any means.

For when, rousing from its slumbers, it opens its bright eyes upon the world, it neither lies still nor begins to wail like an ordinary baby of its age. Rather does it assume at once the character of a little kitten, climbs over the side of the cradle in a jiffy, and if left in undisturbed possession of itself, sets about to have a lively frolic, in which one of its legs does for its duties similar to those which a kitten's tail sometimes does for the kitten. While engaged in this sort of exercise it will tumble heels over head and roll about on the floor like any ball, and doing itself no more harm than if it were a gutta-percha child. If a spoon or some small object of the kind be thrown to it, this uncanny babe will toss it about, boxing it now with one tiny hand and now with the other, picking it up with its toes and throwing it over its head, and scampering about, as fully acquainted with the relations of the minor things of the world as a cat of its own kind. Its arms are very strong, and its hands have so good a grip that it can pull itself up a rope and clamber to the top of a bedpost, where it will sit for some time calmly surveying the spectators with an air of sagacity appalling to behold in one so young. It is, of course, impossible to give any satisfactory explanation of the singular conduct of this interesting babe, although, undoubtedly, mere perversity and nature's love for freaks has something to do with the matter.

Three Members of Congress Mystify a New Capital Guide.

There are not many Irishmen in this Congress. Three of the best known sons of Erin are Lawler, McAdoo and Quinn. This trio walked up to the Capitol together the other morning, writes a Washington correspondent, and at the door of the rotunda were met by a new guide, who wanted to show them the sights of the building. The three Congressmen consented, and were taken into statutory hall to hear the echoes. "Now you stand right here," said the guide, placing the trio on the well-known stones, "and listen. I will move back fifty-five feet and whisper to you, and you will hear my voice as if I were by your side." All this was done, and the guide whispered, then spoke, and finally shouted, but not a word did either of the trio hear. Thinking that probably he had made a mistake and put his victims on the wrong stones, he moved them against the wall and said to them: "This is the whispering gallery. You stand here and I will go across the room and whisper against the wall. You will hear me as if I were at your ear." Again the guide whispered, but met with no response. Then he gradually raised his voice to a shout, but the trio of Congressmen kept their ears against the wall and made no sign. Rejoicing his customers, the guide explained that for some reason, probably on account of the humidity in the atmosphere, the echoes were not working well to-day, and invited his guests to take a look at the House of Representatives. Arriving at the main entrance the Congressmen started to walk in, when the guide seized their arms and told them they couldn't go in there—that was only for members. "O yes, but we can," said Mr. Lawler, and slipping the astonished guide one dollar the joking trio disappeared within.

A New Relationship.
"How is she your sister? By marriage?" "N-no," stammered Chappie. "Quite the reverse, you know. B-by a re-refusal of m-m-marriage."

MISCELLANEOUS.
A LOVELY WOMAN
overboard one day of her. "By heaven she's pained!" "Yes," retorted she indignantly, "and by heaven only! Ruddy health matted her cheek, yet this beautiful lady, once thin and pale, and suffering from a dry, hacking cough, night-sweats, and spitting of blood, seemed destined to fill a consumptive's grave. After spending hundreds of dollars on physicians, without benefit, she tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; her improvement was soon marked, and in a few months she was plump and rosy again—a perfect picture of health and strength. This wonderful 'Golden Medical Discovery' is not only an acknowledged remedy for that terribly fatal malady, when taken in time and given a fair trial, but also for all forms of Scrofulous Skin and Scalp Diseases, such as Eruptions, Tetter, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas, and kindred ailments. All scaly, crusty, itching, troublesome eruptions yield readily to its curative powers. It invigorates the liver, enriches the blood and promotes the healthy functions of the system. It purifies the blood and lung remedy, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will do all that it is recommended to, or money paid for it will be refunded.

OUR COLUMN.
These Are the Books

We Are Giving Away.

This book contains 480 pages; is eight and one-half inches long, six inches wide and two inches thick. It is printed on extra heavy paper and is handsomely bound, with embossed cover and gilt-lettered back.

It is different from all other works ever published. First—It teaches those who have it how to tell what the matter is when a person gets sick.

All similar books tell what to do if you know what the disease is. This book tells you HOW TO DETECT THE DISEASE, and then what to do for it.

No other Book Published does this.

Second—When a person is really attacked by a dangerous disease, it enables you to know the fact, and in such cases its advice is: "Send for a competent physician at once." But in all ordinary cases, such as can be easily cured, it gives full directions for treatment.

Third—It is not confined to the practice used by any one class of physicians; but it gives, separately, and for each disease, the methods used by each of the different schools of medicine, and in ALL CASES THE PRESCRIPTIONS ARE MADE BY THE MOST EMINENT MEN in their respective modes of practice. This makes the work especially suited to the needs of every family, no matter what medical school they prefer.

TESTIMONIALS:
Having examined the advance sheets of the work entitled "Our Family Physician," I can say that I find it accurate in its descriptions of diseases and reliable in its therapeutic department.

H. F. COOK, M. D.,
Professor of Theory and Practice, Hahnemann Medical College.

I have examined the advance sheets of "Our Family Physician," and find it a most valuable work, the work as correct in its mode of treatment of disease, and it deserves wide circulation.
